Conference Profile
The Society of Pediatric Psychology Annual Conference (SPPAC) aims to advance SPP’s mission to promote the health and psychological well-being of children, youth and their families through science and an evidence-based approach to practice, education, training, advocacy, and consultation by:

1. Advancing the science of pediatric psychology and related fields through dissemination of cutting edge research; promotion of research that is culturally, ethically, and developmentally sensitive and includes diverse populations; and education on evidence-based assessment, intervention, and emerging areas of research, clinical care, and policy.
2. Providing a forum for individuals at all levels, from students to established investigators and clinicians, to facilitate consultation, collaboration, and mentorship.
3. Promoting the role and value of pediatric psychology in a changing healthcare environment nationally and internationally.

Conference Theme
The 2016 SPPAC conference theme is “State of the Art in Pediatric Psychology: Promoting Best Practices” with a focus on the translation of research into clinical practice. The conference includes 3 days of programming consisting of 1 day of preconference workshops, 2 days of invited speakers, concurrent symposia, poster sessions, Special Interest Group (SIG) meetings, and several networking opportunities through social hours, breaks and meals. Topics will include:

- Translation of Evidenced Based Practices into clinical settings
- Interdisciplinary Collaborations in clinical care and research to enhance best practices, including integrated primary care
- Diverse Populations Addressing the needs of diverse and underserved populations, including reducing health disparities and increasing access to care
- Neuropsychological Assessment and Intervention Applications of neuropsychology in addressing impact of disease and other risk factors on learning and school outcomes
- Direct Behavioral Observation/Measurement in the natural environment, in simulated settings, and/or electronic monitoring
- Ethics in Education and Training
- Technology in Research and Clinical Care to broaden reach and increase efficacy

The following is a list of tips and important information regarding SPPAC 2016 in Atlanta, GA.

1. Right to Refuse: The Society of Pediatric Psychology (Division 54 of the American Psychological Association) is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. The Society of Pediatric Psychology maintains responsibility for this program and its content. SPPAC shall reserve the right to reject a potential sponsor/exhibitor on such facts such as questionable business practices, having a mission conflict with SPP, or desire to assume control of an event through sponsorship.

2. Disclaimer: The relationship between SPPAC and the sponsoring organization/corporations of an event or event-related item does not represent and exclusive agreement between SPPAC and the specific organization/corporation, no does it suggest that SPPAC endorses the programs, products, or services of the organization/corporation.

3. Liability and Insurance: The sponsor/exhibitor, upon contracting to exhibit, expressly releases SPPAC or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents or committee members, or the owners, employees, or representatives of the Marriott Marquis Downtown Atlanta from any responsibility or liability for any injury, loss, or damage that may occur to the sponsor/exhibitor or to the sponsor/exhibitor’s employees or property prior to during, or subsequent to the period covered by the contract, including but not limited to, any responsibility or liability for negligently caused injury, loss, damage; and further, the sponsor/exhibitor agrees to hold harmless and indemnify SPPAC and the Marriott Marquis Downtown Atlanta in their entirety by any person, and arising out of the exhibitor’s acts or omissions.

4. Security: SPPAC will take reasonable precautions to ensure the area provided for exhibits is secured during non-exhibiting hours; however, SPPAC assumes no liability for damage, loss or theft of any property owned by the exhibitor or its agents. Liability for all equipment and materials remains with the individual sponsor/exhibitor. Neither the Marriott Marquis Downtown Atlanta nor SPPAC is liable for, or carries any insurance on, exhibitor property or fixtures. By authorizing this contract with a signature on the reverse side, the exhibitor hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless SPPAC, its officers, directors, employees and agents for any and all claims arising out of such damage.

5. Exhibit space is assigned according to sponsorship level and the date a contract is received by SPPAC. It is in your best interest to return the completed contract to SPPAC as soon as possible to reserve your exhibit space or advertising. Exhibitors at equal sponsorship levels will alternate exhibit space preference with other equal level sponsors. Location of exhibit space is determined at the discretion of SPPAC and the host venue. SPPAC reserves the right to disallow any exhibit which is not in keeping with the character of the conference, to assign exhibitors to the best alternative space, and to make reasonable shifts in location for the benefit of the exhibitor or the betterment of the conference. Exhibits must be available for viewing by convention delegates beginning at 8 am Thursday through 3 pm Saturday. Exhibitors meeting reservation deadlines by submitting the completed contract will be notified of exact hours, table numbers and setup arrangements by April 1, 2016.

6. Due to limited storage, the SPPAC cannot accept any drayage, packages or exhibits for an exhibit. An address to ship items will be made available on/after April 1, 2016.

7. Exhibit table fees cover minimal pipe and drape, one skirted table with two chairs, one copy of conference program, name badges and conference registration fees for one exhibitor per full table. Additional delegates from your organization should register for the conference online. Because of printing constraints and expenses, SPPAC cannot provide every individual exhibitor with a convention program. However, we will assist you in locating seminars you may wish to sit in on. All exhibitors are invited to attend any of the conference sessions.

8. Exhibitor giveaways must be distributed from, and confined to, the exhibit table space. No exhibitor may distribute materials, which are potentially harmful to the attendees or the facility (i.e. flying disks, stickers, gum).

9. To receive sponsorship benefits, exhibitor must meet deadlines for submission of advertising and exhibiting contract (February 1, 2016). To be included in the conference registration booklet or the conference program, advertising art must be received at SPPAC by the deadline listed on this form. Late submissions cannot be accepted and sponsorship commitments cannot be altered or refunded once the contract is signed and submitted to SPPAC.

10. Prepayment is required to hold your sponsorship; if you would like to hold your sponsorship with a credit card, but actually pay by check, please note that in the payment section. If the check has not been received four weeks prior to the event, your card will be charged.

11. Exhibitor Lodging: SPPAC appreciates exhibitors reserving rooms in the official conference hotel. When reserving accommodations for yourself or other members of your exhibiting party, please do not overbook with the intention of releasing rooms. Only reserve the number of rooms that your delegation will need.

12. No exhibitor or sponsor shall contract with the hotel or conference center for any signage, promotional material, event, display or communication without the specific written permission of SPPAC. Exhibitors and sponsors must limit their promotion to the exhibit hall and to those sponsored events for which they contracted.

13. Unless otherwise arranged, fees for all sponsorships should be paid to the Society of Pediatric Psychology.

14. CANCELLATION POLICY: Exhibit space reservations may be canceled if written notification is received on or before March 1, 2016. In such event, a refund of 50% of the exhibit space fees will be given. There will be no refunds for exhibit space cancellations received after March 1, 2016. For cancellations, contact the SPP Administrative Officer, Karen Roberts, at email: sppacdiv54@gmail.com
