Thank you for offering to be a Platinum Level Sponsor of our BIM Pulse Symposium and demonstrating your support for the AEC industry and KU.

Your Platinum Sponsorship package includes:
- 4 sponsor attendee registrations (this includes your presentation speakers)
  - NOTE: 2 additional attendees over this amount can be registered at a discounted rate (see below)
- 2 session presentations
- 1 mini-workshop presentation
- 1 exhibitor table for the entire day – visible to all attendees
- An opportunity to network and recruit students during the student career fair reception
- Company name and logo profiled on the symposium website
- Company name profiled in the agenda for your session/workshop/poster presentations
- Company name and logo printed in the symposium agenda (if received by August 31)

Optional Sponsorship of Student Attendees:
You also have the option of sponsoring 2 or 4 student attendees for the symposium for an additional $250 or $500, which will help to increase the overall number of students able to attend the entire symposium.

Registration and Sponsorship Payment:
1. Visit the online registration site: https://www.continuinged.ku.edu/register/?pn=AA163031.
2. Select the Platinum Sponsorship option to register your sponsorship and first attendee.
3. Select any optional additional fees or sponsorships of students you may want to add for this attendee.
4. Enter the attendee’s information and then follow the instructions for payment.

Registration of Remaining Attendees Included:
1. Each remaining attendee included in your sponsorship package should individually visit the registration site.
2. Enter the code: spsr015 to access the free sponsorship attendee registration.
3. Select any optional additional fees or sponsorships of students the attendee may want to add.
4. Enter the attendee’s information to complete the registration or proceed to payment if the attendee selected any of the optional fees available.

If you are unsure of which staff will attend the symposium at this time, please know that our registration center staff can easily substitute one attendee for another closer to the event, should that be needed.

Presentation Session Content Review – Speaker Information:
Because each sponsorship level includes a presentation at the symposium, the KU faculty organizing the event will contact you to review the content of your presentation and to ascertain which of your registered attendees will be the presentation speaker. Please note, the deadline for presentation content to be submitted for review is September 10.

Additional Attendees:
Your organization has the option of registering an additional 2 attendees above those included in your package at a discounted rate of $149.00. Visit the registration link above and enter the code “dspr015” to access this discounted rate.

Registration Questions or Problems:
If you run into any difficulty with the online registration process, please contact a registration specialist at KU Continuing Education (KUCE) toll-free at 877-404-KUCE (5823), direct at 785-864-5823 or email at kuce@ku.edu. Additionally, you can contact the Program Manager in KUCE for this event, Justine Hamilton, at 913-897-8718 or justine@ku.edu.
